Captain Peary, replying to reneated questions as to the results of big farctic trip, said that he had not yet prepared such a chart as would enable sny one to follow in his footsteps to the pole, but he 'lmagined' tifat he had data by which he could 'prepare such a chart. He said the position of the North Pole could be charted just the same as the equator; the trouble was the comparative low alitude of the sam, which never gets higher than 22-1-2 degrees above the horizon.

For that reason ordinary observations could not be relied on with accuracy.

Action of International Federation Delegates.

Paris, January 19—No more interesting and apparently complicated question has ever come up before the international Aeronautical Federation than that which was discussed at a special meeting held here to-day relating to the award of the Ryan $10,000 Statue of Liberty prize, at the Belmont Park meeting in October to the late John B. Moisant.

Without passing upon the question of winner of this prize, the federation of winner of this prize, the federation adopted a resolution that the changes made in the regulations governing the contest did not conform with article 20 of the by-laws of the International Federation, which provide that go changes can be made in the video of America, for "new classification and referred, back to the Aere Club, of America, for "new classification and received, or "new classification and received, will have on the acute of the current of the United States to-day relating to "new classification and referred, for "new classification and referred, for "new classification and received by The current, for "new classification and received by The current, for "new classification and received by The current, for "new classification and received by Changes action will have on the acute of the Current of the Cur

America, for "new classification and results."

The actual effect which the federation's action will have on the controversy is not entirely clear. The English delegates assert that it means the disqualification of Moisant, but the American delegates insist that it merely signifies the reopening of the controversy. The change in the regulations consisted in the abandonment of the condition that each contestant must have flown for one hour previous to the actual flight to the Statue of Liberty and return.

The American delegates were not able to-day to prove that this change was ratified by the sports committee Hence the federation has upheld White's protest on that point.

Hawley and Post Win.

The federation decided that it had no authority to consider the protest against the award of the international bailtoon trophy to the Americans, Alan R. Hawley and Augustus Post, on the ground that the protest as made was iregular. The federation decided first with the sporting commission of the American Aero Club.

The protest was made by the Lower the

The new Earl of Ancaster, who, while Lord Willoughby de Eresby, married Eloise Breeze, a daughter of W. L. Breeze, of New York, and who now succeeds his father, comes into possession in Perthsbire of one of the largest estates in Scotland. Set like a jewel in its centre are the remains of Drummond Castle, the history of which goes back to the middle of the eleventh century. It was here that many of the stirring events in the love story of Mary Queen of Scots and Darnley were cancied. The Ancasters have also two heautiful English centates, one at Stamford, the other Grimthorne (antle, Lincolushire. The Earl of Ancaster is Joint Hereditary Lord Great (humberlain of England. As the other joint holder of that office, the Marquis of Cholmondeley, acted in fant capacity during King Edward's reigu, it is probable that Lord Ancaster will have his turn in the new reign. One of the duties of the office is to arrange the preparations in Westminster Hall for the coronation. Another is to walk on the right of the King when the latter opens Parliament in person.
